

LAUNCHING PROBABLE AT ISLAND DOCK SATURDAY

"Esopus" Will Be Launched Saturday or Monday at Kingston Shipbuilding Plant If Fittings Arrive—Further Details Later.

The first big ocean going ship to be ever built along the Rondout creek will be named the Esopus and it will be launched Saturday or Monday from the Island Dock shipyard of the Kingston Shipbuilding Corporation, provided the fittings which must be installed in the ship are received this week. Further details of the launching and the definite date for the event will be given later in the week.

From Blossvale to Esopus
The United States Shipping Board, Emergency Fleet Corporation, had originally named this first ocean going steam ship the Blossvale, but about a month ago the Kingston Shipbuilding Corporation took the matter up with the board asking for permission to change the name of the Blossvale to the Kingston, and if there was any objection to the name of Kingston to change the name to the Esopus.

Evidently there is another ship being built elsewhere named the Kingston for the Kingston Shipbuilding Corporation received word this morning from W. G. Hudson, district supervisor of the board, that the name Blossvale could be changed to the Esopus, which will be done.

Another Ship The Catskill
Another of the ships under course of construction will be named the Catskill instead of the name assigned by the shipping board originally.

Waiting for Fittings.
The Kingston Shipbuilding Corporation when seen today stated that the only thing delaying the definite date for the launching was the arrival of some fittings which have to be placed in the Esopus before it can be launched.

These fittings or parts are manufactured out of town and are expected to arrive early this week. As soon as received they will be installed in the ship.

It was stated at the office of the Kingston Shipbuilding plant that the launching would take place either Saturday or Monday unless the fittings were not received in time.

Launching at High Water.

If the launching takes place on Saturday it will occur about 1 o'clock that afternoon as it is high water at that time. If the launching is delayed until Monday it will also occur in the afternoon.

It is high water about 2 o'clock on both afternoons.

Appropriate Ceremonies.

Appropriate ceremonies will mark the launching of the biggest ship ever built in this vicinity.

While Saturday will be a big day in Kingston when the Uster County Club of New York city, will pay Kingston a visit and there will be big doings at Fortify Park that afternoon the launching will be held early enough not to interfere with the program.

As soon as a definite date for the launching can be announced it will be printed in The Freeman.

TEUTONS SEEK PEACE PARLEYS

Germans Offer Conqueror's Terms to Belgium and Austria Seeks Secret General Discussion — Contempt Here For German Catpaw Tactics.

In her offer of peace to Belgium, as telegraphed to London, Germany makes the following terms:

That Belgium shall remain neutral until the end of the war.

That thereafter the entire economic and political independence of Belgium shall be reconstituted.

That the pre-war commercial treaties between Germany and Belgium shall again be put into operation after the war for an indeterminate period.

That Belgium shall use her good offices to secure the return of the German colonies.

That the Flemish question shall be considered, and the Flemish minority which aided the German invaders, shall not be penalized.

The principal paragraph in the official Austrian communication telegraphed from Vienna to Amsterdam:

The Royal and Imperial Government (of Austria) would like, therefore, to propose to the governments of the belligerent state to send delegates to a confidential and unbinding discussion on the basic principles for the conclusion of peace, in a place in a neutral country and at a near date that would yet have to be agreed upon, delegates who were charged to make known to one another the conception of their governments regarding those principles and to receive and discuss communications as well as to request and give frank and candid explanations on all those points which need to be precisely defined.

Washington, Sept. 15.—The war will be won not lost, by negotiation.

That was the all-prevailing sentiment in official and diplomatic circles in the capital of the United States today.

Austria's peace offer in which she asked that the belligerents enter a non-binding secret conference to arrange terms has met with no response anywhere. Officials are grimly silent when asked to discuss it for publication. That cannot be until the offer is given the consideration which it warrants by all of the nations allied against the central powers and it is formally rejected. But no one here in Washington, from the president's closest advisers, his senate and house spokesmen, the chiefs of the diplomatic corps and the men in the street, tried to disguise the contempt which they felt for the apparent effort of Germany again to use Austria as a cat's paw.

When Germany wants peace it will have to ask for it in its own way, declared officials. The revelations of intrigue in Russia with the contemptible Brest-Litovsk treaty resulting therefrom are too well known to allow parley with those responsible for them. The reply to this latest—and greatest—peace offer will simply be a stiffening of the war spirit and the continued advance of our troops, in the consensus of opinion among all officials here.

Officials said early today that the Austrian offer had not reached the state department as yet. It is believed that this subject was one of the compelling reasons why President Wilson abandoned his proposed coast to coast tour in behalf of the Fourth Liberty Loan.

There is no reason for any great delay in replying to the Austrian offer. Its rejection being certain all that will be required will be an agreement upon the terms in which it is to be couched. The peace terms of the Entente are known to all the world. They comprise as the first step restitution.

Belgium is in position to sound the keynote. It was pointed out here today. Germany has made a direct offer to her—a most insulting one, officials declare. Without a single word about reparation or reparation of her sacred pledged word and thereby justifying every move she made against her small neighbors, Germany now suggests that she will "graciously grant" a peace to Belgium if the latter will remain neutral; restore her pre-war treaties; utilize her influence to get Germany back her forfeited colonies and agree not to penalize the Flemish traitors.

Congressional leaders were unanimous in their belief that there must not even be consideration of the Austrian peace suggestion because of the danger that such consideration would give aid and comfort to the enemy.

Sold at Sofia.
Geneva, Sept. 16.—Dr. Wilhelm Solff, colonial minister of the imperial German government, and who has been mentioned in dispatches from neutral countries as about to replace Von Hertling as imperial chancellor of the German government, has arrived at Sofia, Bulgaria.

Horse Came Back.
The horse assumed his old time popularity Sunday and he seemed to appreciate it. More horse drawn wagons were out than have been in many years.

Beneficent Sanitarium Allocated.
The regular meeting of the Beneficent Sanitarium Allocated Association will be held Monday afternoon, September 23, at 2:30 o'clock in the Sanitarium.

MUST GET PERMIT FOR BUILDING

Where Construction Amounts to $2,500 or More, Consult County Defense Council—Step to Conserve Material and Labor.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 16.—In order to stop all building construction not absolutely necessary in winning the war, the War Industries Board has asked the State Defense Council to pass upon all proposed construction. The work will be done through the County Home Defense Committees.

The county committee will pass upon construction proposals, and transmit recommendations with a summary of facts, to the State Defense Council, which will review the case. If the state council rules against a piece of construction work, the War Industries Board will back up the action. But if county councils and state councils are too lenient, and approve unnecessary construction, the War Industries Board has power to step in and stop construction.

The whole plan is based on the necessity of making the nation work or fight, putting everything on a war-war basis. All construction work where the cost comes to $2,500 or more, must be referred to the county councils for action.

The ability of the War Industries Board to enforce this plan rests upon the fact that it controls priorities and has also secured from the manufacturers of building materials a pledge not to supply materials for projects which are not authorized under the regulations of the War Industries Board.

The extension of the power to stop unnecessary building construction comes as a result of the interchange of letters between the president and the secretary of war, who is chairman of the Council of National Defense, in which the president approved the suggestion that the machinery of the State Defense Councils of the nation should be used as much as possible instead of creating extensive bureaus of federal departments.

In a letter to Governor Whitman, chairman of the State Defense Council, Arthur H. Fleming, chief of the section on co-operation of states of the Council of National Defense, said:

"It is hardly too much to say that the success of the entire priorities system of the government will under this plan depend upon you. We trust you will give it your unremitting attention and at the same time impress upon your entire organization the fact that this task will be one of their most important functions."

Councils will not have anything to do in regard to undertakings by the War Department, Navy Department, Emergency Fleet Corporation, Bureau of Industrial Housing and Transportation of the Department of Labor, the United States Housing Corporation, and the following civilian enterprises:

Repairs of or extensions to existing buildings involving in the aggregate a cost not exceeding $2,500. Roadways, buildings, and other structures undertaken by or under contract with the United States Railroad Administration or a railroad operated by such administration.

Those directly connected with mines producing coal, metals and ferro-alloy minerals.

Public highway improvements and street pavements when expressly approved in writing by the United States Highway Council.

For building projects not falling within one of the classes mentioned there will be required a special written permit issued by the chief of Nonwar Construction Section of the Priorities Division of the War Industries Board.

Anyone contemplating a building which he conceives to be in the public interest, or of such essentiality that under existing conditions it should not be deferred, should make a full statement of the facts in writing, under oath, and present it to the local representative of the Council of National Defense for his approval.

New Challenge for Polish Church.
A new challenge of pure silver and gold will be presented to the Church of the Immaculate Conception. This holy and costly souvenir will be made to the church by voluntary offerings from the friends of the parish.

It was decided that the first sacrifice of the Holy Mass of thanksgiving will be said with this new challenge on the glorious day of the victorious peace of our beloved country. Rev. Francis Lesniowski, rector of the church, will appreciate the offerings from the friends towards this most pleasing and holy souvenir.

St. John's Auxiliary Meeting.
The first fall meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of St. John's Church will be held tomorrow, Tuesday, afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the parish house. All members are urged to be present, and all women of the parish whether members or not, are cordially invited to this meeting, which will be the first meeting of the season, and under the new rector, Dr. Leighton Williams, where all of the women of the parish will have an opportunity of getting together.

No Benches at Kingston Point.
Sunday was such a delightful day that many took the opportunity of enjoying a trolley ride to Kingston Point Park, but when they reached the park they found that the benches had been removed for the summer, and that the only place to sit down for awhile was on the ground.

PERSHING HAMMERING AT DEFENSES OF METZ

Allied Armies Continue Progress on West Front—French Take Vailly, One of Chemin-Des-Dames Keys—British Gain on Two Mile Front in Flanders.

Over nearly the whole western battle front the three great armies—British, French and American—have made fresh progress in the past 24 hours.

General Pershing's victorious army continues to hammer away at the German positions in front of Metz, where a great artillery duel is raging.

It is not yet certain, however, that the main fortifications defending Metz are under the fire of American cannon.

It is certain, however, that the vast network of railway lines and highways converging upon the German stronghold are being drenched with steel.

Another important gain was made by the French during the night in their flanking operation against the strong German position on the Chemin-des-Dames, north of the Aisne river.

Vailly, one of the key positions to the Chemin-des-Dames on the southwest, was captured and at the same time the French took by storm Mont Singes, a gateway position to the northwest of the German line on the Aisne heights.

(Vailly is nine miles east of Soissons and the capture of this place is another big step along the bank of the Aisne river.)

Another German retirement on the Vesle river, immediately west of Rheims, will be compelled if the French extend their advance much farther north of the Aisne.

The British struck in Flanders, advancing over a two-mile front astride the Ypres-Comines canal, near the Franco-Belgian border.

Americans are now bringing the fortress of Metz into the zone of active battle for the first time since the war started.

The Americans and French, who are driving towards Metz, have extended their thrusts both to the north and south of the original area of attack.

Assaults have been launched north of the Verdun-Blain road (on the edge of the old Verdun battlefield) and southwards along the Moselle, in the upper reaches of the Vosges.

The extension of the line may portend an attempted flanking movement against Metz, although there are terrific obstacles in the way of such an operation.

As the Allies approach the Briey-Longwy ore fields, northwest of Metz, they are taking under their artillery fire the lateral line of railway, leading from Metz through Conflans, Spincourt and Montmedy. This is one of the most important German lines of communication on the western front.

154 MISSING FROM GALWAY CASTLE
Steamer Sent Down By U-Boat With No Warning In Rough Sea Carried Hundreds of Women and Children—Many Lost.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
London, Sept. 15.—One hundred and fifty-four persons, including many women and children, are missing today from the British steamship Galway Castle, which was torpedoed while on route from England to South Africa. One hundred and twenty of the missing were passengers and the remainder members of the crew.

Among the first bodies recovered and brought ashore were those of three small children. There were three hundred women and children on the Galway Castle when she sailed Tuesday with 749 passengers.

The vessel was attacked in a stormy sea, apparently without warning, at 7 o'clock in the morning. The exact location of the ship at the time of the attack has not been revealed by the British admiralty.

Most of the ninety-six passengers on the steamship were British and Canadian officers. All were puzzled by the strange occurrence. Some of the officers suggested that the German U-boat or possibly a converted raider, might have used mortars. Other pointed out that a deck mortar would make no flash in releasing a shell.

The attack occurred at 11:30: Saturday night. The captain of the vessel was on the bridge when he saw the flash. Immediately afterward a shell screamed overhead, passing over the starboard bow, and dropped two hundred feet off the port bow. Four other shots followed. The British ship did not reply to the fire, but zig-zagged to safety.

There has been on the market for several years a device for use on big game rifles which eliminated practically all noise and most of the recoil.

JEWELRY VALUED AT $4,000 LOST
Attorney Bernardo J. Valdes of Abasco, Habana, a Cuban lawyer, reported to the police late Saturday afternoon that a bag containing jewelry valued at about $4,000 and five one hundred dollar bills had disappeared from his automobile. He offered a reward of $200 for the return of the bag and its contents. Any one lucky enough to find it should get in touch with police headquarters.

Attorney Valdes and his family had been spending the summer at Hotel Westmoreland in the Catskills. Early Saturday morning they packed up and started for New York city. The bag containing the money and jewelry were placed in the car. After reaching Kingston they crossed the Rhinecliff ferry and had stopped at a restaurant in Poughkeepsie to obtain lunch when the loss of the bag was discovered. They drove back to Kingston hunting for the bag, but were unsuccessful. He furnished the police with a description of the thirty pieces of jewelry.

OLD SUGAR FIRST.
Warning Against Hoarding By Dealers in Staple.

The following has been received from Washington:

"Wholesalers and retailers must sell all old stocks of sugar, purchased at the old price, on the basis of purchase price and not on the new price, until these stocks are exhausted. Retailers before raising their price must submit to the Local Food Administrator a written statement that they have exhausted all of their old-priced sugar, before being permitted to advance the price to the new basis."

Food Administrator for Ulster County.

25,000 PENNA MINERS ON STRIKE

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Pottsville, Pa., Sept. 16.—It is estimated that 25,000 coal miners are idle in anthracite district No. 9 today. This action followed a meeting of delegates of all the unions of the district Sunday, at which it was unanimously voted to suspend work pending an adjustment of their wage demands. Negotiations with the government have been under way. Representative Frank Reeves, of the Consumers League, today issued an appeal to the men to return to work at once. The miners claim they simply "stopped work" and there is no strike.

RUSSIAN TRAITORS AMAZE WORLD

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, Sept. 16.—The revelations of the committee on public information proving conclusively that the Russian Bolshevik have at all times been the instruments and pawns of the German imperial government have amazed the civilized world, according to information reaching the committee today. The inevitable result will be the downfall of the Bolshevik executive committee, in the opinion of diplomats here.

Every effort is being made to get all of the details of this treachery spread throughout Russia. The methods whereby this will be assured are such that it is believed it can be successfully accomplished.

The story of treachery also is being spread throughout the neutral nations and sent to points where it is certain to reach interior Germany and Austria thus adding to the internal troubles of the Huns.

AVIATORS KILLED
As Machine Is Impaled on Brooklyn Clothes Pole.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

New York, Sept. 16.—Lieutenant Charles Kenner, Jr., of Covington, La., and Lieutenant Frank C. Austin, of Boston, were killed here today when their aeroplane fell into the yard of a residence at Flatbush, a Brooklyn suburb.

Lieutenant Kenner was attached to the First Provisional Wing at Garden City, Long Island, and Austin was attached to the 352nd squadron, Company B, at Mineola.

The engine of the army aeroplane in which they were flying "went dead" while they were over the houses and trees of Flatbush. There was no suitable place for a landing and the machine was impaled on a clothes line pole as it struck the earth.

Both men were dead when their bodies were taken from the wreckage.

FARLEY SEEMS AT POINT OF DEATH
By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Mamaroneck, N. Y., Sept. 16.—The condition of Cardinal John M. Farley, following his relapse yesterday, is so critical today that it is feared he may be at the point of death.

"We don't know whether he will rally or not," said his secretary, Monsignor Carroll, at 10 o'clock this morning. "He is very weak. His condition is extremely critical. We do not know that he is actually dying. There is some hope, but it is very slim."

Three physicians are in constant attendance at the Cardinal's bedside.

The last rites of the Roman Catholic church were administered to the Cardinal yesterday by Bishop Hayes and Monsignor Manner, just after he became suddenly worse.

Just before the sinking spell, Cardinal Farley whispered a wish to be removed to his home in New York city. He now is unable to talk.

Tailor Has Moved.

BIGELOW ON "THE HUN AT HOME"

Author Will Deliver Address Tonight At Pythian Patriotic Meeting—Popular Soldier-Slides Shown—No Admission.

A real patriotic meeting with some of our boys who are on the other side participating will be held at the Pythian Hall at eight o'clock tonight. Poulney Bigelow, the well known author and lecturer, will deliver an address on the subject, "The Hun at Home." The meeting will be open to the public and no admission will be charged and no collection taken. It will be held under the auspices of Franklin Lodge, No. 37, K. of P.

Slides of the members and of sons and brothers in service in the war will be shown. Governmental slides showing how our boys are being trained on the other side will also be displayed. A musical program will also be given.

There are very few people in this country who can speak as reliably and forcibly from personal experience and contact about the German people as Mr. Bigelow. He has spent many years in Germany and was often the guest of the Kaiser on state occasions. Some of his best known books relate to the history of that country. His "History of the German Struggle for Liberty" was based upon materials gathered by him from the secret archives of the state and general staff. He is one of the few civilians who have had access to those records. He also wrote "Prussian Memories" and "Border Land of Czar and Kaiser." His latest book published this year is entitled, "Generic, King of the Vandals and First Prussian Kaiser."

George Propheeter will have charge of the display of the slides. Representatives of other fraternal organizations are urged to attend, as it is hoped that this meeting will be followed by similar ones by all fraternal organizations in the city. There is nothing more patriotically inspiring than seeing our own boys displayed on the screen in their uniforms. Mayor Canfield is chairman of the committee having the meeting in charge, and it will be worth while for all who have the opportunity to attend.

SALAD SUGGESTIONS.
The summer time is the season for a variety of salads, yet any season and time and any occasion to any class or condition of men, a salad is an appropriate dish.

A left-over may be used in a salad without any question as to its right of second appearance. All kinds of cooked vegetables with an appropriate salad dressing make most satisfying salad.

Olive Salad.—Line a salad bowl with a crisp head of lettuce, cut one boiled beet and one boiled potato into dices, chop one small cucumber and two hard-cooked eggs very fine; stone and chop 24 queen olives. Pound to a paste two anchovies, or use a teaspoonful of anchovy paste; dust all with a teaspoonful of salt, a few dashes of paprika and a saltspoonful of white pepper; sprinkle lightly with four tablespoonfuls of orange juice, then pour over a French dressing and serve at once. To make the French dressing, use four tablespoonfuls of oil to one of strong vinegar, a little onion juice, if liked, and salt and cayenne pepper to taste. The addition of a pinch of mustard and a teaspoonful of powdered sugar improves the flavor for some palates.

Cauliflower Salad.—Soak in cold salt water a firm head of cauliflower for a half hour, to remove any insects; put to boil whole and when tender set aside to cool. Put in a salad bowl and garnish with four pimientos cut in dices, with ten stuffed olives finely chopped. Serve very cold with French dressing.

Combination Salad.—Make a French dressing and serve with a cupful each of celery, cucumber, tomato, apple and a few spoonfuls each of green peppers, radish and young onion, all sliced thin. Serve on a bed of watercress or shredded lettuce.

Tomato Salad.—Scald, peel and chill six firm, ripe tomatoes, cut in halves. To one cupful of whipped cream add two tablespoonfuls each of lemon juice and prepared horseradish, also seasoning of salt, paprika and mustard. Place tomatoes on lettuce leaves, heap the dressing on each lightly, sprinkle with chopped pimiento and serve.

DUCK SEASON OPENED TODAY

Hunters Must Observe Both Federal and State Game Laws—Syllabus of Fish and Game Laws May be Obtained of County Clerk and City Clerk.

The wild duck hunting season was officially opened today in Ulster county and vicinity and will remain open until December 31, and a number of local hunters took advantage of the opening of the season.

In making their plans to shoot migratory waterfowl, hunters will do well to note the dates of open seasons under both federal and state laws. This caution by the United States department of agriculture results from evidence of confusion in the minds of some sportsmen in regard to the opening of the season when the dates conflict under state and federal laws.

The federal law and regulations limit the season before and after which no one may shoot these birds. If a state law opens the season later or closes it earlier than the dates prescribed by the federal regulations, the season in that state is just so much further shortened. Special attention is called to the fact that the federal regulations do not authorize any one to hunt or kill migratory birds contrary to the state law.

If local sportsmen are not aware of the regulations of the federal law it would pay them to get in touch with Game Protector DeWitt, who would be glad to furnish any desired information.

A syllabus of the fish and game laws for this year in this state may be obtained of County Clerk Loughran or of City Clerk Doremus.

The deer season in Ulster county opens November 1 and closes November 15.

The season on mink opens November 10 and lasts until April 20.

Rabbits may be taken from October 1 to March 1.

Raccoons may be taken in any manner day or night, except with traps from November 10 to March 15.

The open season on skunks opens November 10 and closes February 10. They may be taken in any manner day or night except they shall not be dug out of their holes or dens or taken by smoking or the use of chemicals.

The squirrel season on black, gray or fox opens October 1 and closes November 15.

The grouse or partridge season opens October 1 and closes November 30, and no person shall take more than four of the birds in one day nor more than twenty in an open season.

There is no open season on quail until 1920.

Woodcock may be taken from October 1 to November 15.

The open season on black bass closes November 30, and there is no closed season on striped bass.

There is no close season on yellow perch.

All sportsmen would do well to obtain a copy of the fish and game law, and then if in doubt see his local game protector.

Hunting licenses may be obtained from either the city or county clerk.

A CLEVER COMEDY.

Potash and Perlmuter Will Be Here Thursday Evening.

"Business Before Pleasure," said to be a clever and amusing comedy, will be the attraction at the Kingston Opera House this Thursday evening. In this latest offering, describing the experiences of Potash and Perlmuter, who for the sake of amusement, have left the suit and cloak business and have entered the moving picture producing field, these well-known characters are said to be funnier than ever. During the play a scene is shown of the making of a film. The papers in cities where this play has been produced speak very favorably of it.

INSECT ENEMY OF CURRANTS

Common Worm Can Be Controlled by Spraying With Some Poison—Two Other Pests.

The chief insect enemy the currant has is the common currant worm. This can be controlled by spraying with some poison, either Paris green at the rate of five ounces to 50 gallons of water, and one pound of lime, or arsenate of lead, two pounds to 50 gallons. This should be applied when the currants are beginning to form, and if necessary repeated in two weeks.

There is also a green plant louse which attacks the currant foliage and frequently causes considerable damage by sucking the sap. The only way this can be controlled is by the application of Black Leaf 40, before the lice cause the leaves to curl. After the leaves curl, there is very little that can be done to check this pest. It usually disappears about midsummer, as at that time it goes to another plant.

Occasionally the currant is attacked by the San Jose scale, or more frequently by the European plant scale. Either of these scales can be controlled by the regular application of lime-sulphur before the buds start in the spring. The regular commercial lime-sulphur testing 32 degrees Baumé should be diluted at the rate of one gallon to eight ounces of water.

The profiteer flies high, because the devil is a friend that won't set fire to his wings.

As cold as they say this old world is we don't find 'em willing to swap it for the fireworks.

Some of the all-knowing ones have actually quit running the war and have gone to work to make a living till the war ends.

MEMORIAL TABLET DRIVE STARTED

Campaign to Raise Funds by Industrial Workers Now Underway—Lace Curtain Mills and West Shore Car Shops Contributors.

The big drive to secure at least $3,000 to erect a memorial tablet on the city hall grounds in memory of our boys who have been called to the colors is now underway, and the first industrial plant to report is the lace curtain mills which subscribed $54.30 toward the tablet. The West Shore car shops have also come in with a total of $76.00.

The drive ends next Monday, and it is expected that long before that time the amount needed will have been subscribed.

In all of the industrial plants of the city as well as the big department stores subscriptions blanks have been distributed bearing on the face a cut of the proposed tablet.

The drive has been started by the industrial workers of Kingston at the suggestion of Mayor Canfield, who called attention to the fact that the majority of the boys with the colors were industrial workers.

The names of those who have contributed toward the honor tablet are:

WOMAN'S LAND ARMY NEEDS NEW MEMBERS

Ulster County Campaign Begins Wednesday—Dues Are Low and Call for Women Farm Labor Is Urgent.

The great need for women labor on the farms of New York state has just been emphasized by the military draft registration. The supply of woman labor must be increased at least fivefold to prevent the situation on the farms in 1919 from becoming acute.

F. H. Bethell, chairman of the army's state membership campaign committee, has called attention to the importance of the membership drive of the New York State Woman's Land Army, which will open September 18. It is proposed to establish 200 camps in this state, and the campaign will be started with the hope of enrolling 1,000,000 supporting members. Membership dues are so low that all may help to increase the nation's food supply.

The Women's Land Army "drive" for memberships in Ulster county opens on Wednesday, September 18, to continue until the 28th. The very efficient organization plan developed by the Women's Home Defense of Ulster county and used by them in forwarding their work so successfully, will be availed of by the Land Army organization in conducting their drive.

Next spring will be too late, so the dollars now. The money must be raised now so that the farmer may know what labor he can depend upon for next spring and make his plans accordingly. There isn't one of you but what can become a "tiller." Nearly every one can be a "planter." Many can if they will win the "gleaners" and quite a few can attain to the glory of being a "harvester."

Membership is divided in four classes:
$1 a year makes one a "tiller."
For $5 a year one becomes a "planter." For $25 a year one is a "gleaner" and for $100 a year a "harvester."

Nearly every kind of basket work, matings or china can be cleaned by washing with salt and water.

Handfuls of salt will clean saucepans and take away the unpleasant smell of onions if they have been cooked in them.

Before adding vinegar to mint for sauce always add a pinch of salt. This prevents the mint from going brown and greatly improves the flavor.

BALFOUR SEES NO HOPE FOR PEACE

British Foreign Secretary Believes Austrian Proposal German Effort to Break Allied Harmony.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
London, Sept. 16.—(3:20 p. m.)—"I am sure that the (Austro-Hungarian) move will not result in peace," said Foreign Secretary Balfour this afternoon in addressing representatives of the dominions press at the Savoy.

Germany was flatly charged with trying to divide the Allies.

"I cannot honestly say that the (Austro-Hungarian) proposals, so far as I have studied them, offer the slightest hope that the goal all desire—peace which will be more than a truce—can really be attained," he continued. "No utterance of Germany's, no matter whether it emanates from officials of the Reichstag or from German headquarters, counts until they show they are prepared to say they are ready to accept a solution in conformity with what the Allies say is just and right."

"Irresponsible conversations are useless because they are fruitless," he added. "Until Germany is prepared to adopt a far different viewpoint that that which emanates from her statesmen such conversations serve to no purpose."

Mr. Balfour expressed the conviction that the proposal would not result in peace and at the same time charged that Germany was trying to divide the Allies.

"When the Germans try to dress in President Wilson's colors or adopt President Wilson's phrases to their diplomacy, they at the same time are violating every principle for which President Wilson stands," continued the foreign secretary.

"In all four years the Germans never made any move that deserved to be considered as a sincere peace proposition."

"The German proposal was made by divide the Allies and weaken co-ordinated effort to victory which is now showing fruits on all of the fronts."

"I cannot believe it was an honest effort to arrive at acceptable terms."

"I am sure the move will not result in peace. I am just as sure that it will not divide the Allies."

Mr. Balfour called for mutual trust and confidence among the Allies.

BRIDGEPORT STRIKE IS AT AN END

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Bridgeport, Conn., Sept. 16.—Re-affirming their loyalty to the government, the striking munition workers here today sent a lengthy reply to President Wilson's order that they return to work, promising to do so at once and do their part in keeping up the flow of munitions.

They also promised they would take up their grievances in an orderly manner with the Taft-Walsh war labor board, and asked his influence to get them an early hearing.

"To the great cause of keeping up the flow of munitions to which you have dedicated yourself and the present administration the machinists here are, we hope, equally dedicated," the message reads. "We loyally accept your command that we return to the working conditions which we left and we shall proceed, as you advise us, to re-appeal our case to the established governmental tribunals, leaving the event in your hands as chief magistrate of our mighty nation."

"In thus going back to work may we express the hope that we have not been sufficiently misrepresented in Washington to cause you for a moment to doubt our loyalty to the cause of this righteous war or to our country."

The message then goes on to say that while they have no further right to discuss the past issue, they ask the liberty of stating for the future guidance of the president some of the incidents of the struggle and of the hearings held before the award was made.

MET IN PICARDY.

Rhinebeck Brothers Reunited in Army After 18-Year Lapse.

Parted as boys thirteen years ago at Rhinebeck, where they were born, Bruce Brown and Ralph Brown, brothers, both serving in the United States forces in France, were reunited unexpectedly on the plains of Picardy in France recently, according to a letter that their cousin, Fred L. Brown of Poughkeepsie, has received.

Bruce Brown, the elder, is a sergeant in Company F, Twentieth Engineers, and Ralph is a private in the Twenty-third Infantry, Medical Corps.

Both are sons of Benjamin Brown, who was one of five sons who served through the civil war. Thirteen years ago Bruce went west. Like his father he joined the army and served five years. Then he went to Alaska. At the outbreak of the war he was rejoined the colors and was sent to France about a year ago. Private Ralph Brown entered the army at Poughkeepsie several months ago and was sent to France. The brothers had kept in touch with each other through letters. In Picardy Ralph learned his brother's regiment was in the vicinity. He made inquiries. "You'll find him over there on a knoll making observations," a lieutenant told him. He hurried to the spot. Each brother recognized the other instantly.

Many Wounded Soldiers.

One of the north bound West Shore trains that passed through here Sunday had two car loads of soldiers. It is said that most of those soldiers were wounded.

BUY U.S. GOV'T BONDS

FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN

R. HARDENBERG

A PATRIOTIC DUTY.

Theodore H. Miller, general superintendent of the DeLaval Separator Company, Poughkeepsie, New York, has issued the following statement to the Liberty Loan Committee, Second Federal Reserve District, giving his views on the coming campaign:

"It is not only our patriotic duty to see to it that the Fourth Liberty Loan is a success, but it is also best for our selfish interests as well, because 'nothing will avail' unless we win the war, which must and will be won. It then becomes a question of how to finance it. Is it not better to spread a part of this cost over a few years by means of bonds than have it all taken by taxes at once? Depend upon it, the United States Government will get this money to WIN and we all should count it a privilege that we may decide ourselves how it shall be done. 'Subscribe to the limit.'"

THE POWER OF PRAYER AND PURSE

"Thy kingdom come" is a petition which may be answered through the Fourth Liberty Loan. Make your prayers and your purse hang together.

***** WHY BUY LIBERTY BONDS? *****

* The one important and all-sufficient reason why every American should buy Liberty Bonds *
* is to the limit of his ability to save *
* is love of country. There are *
* other reasons, but they are decidedly secondary. *
* One is that Liberty Bonds are *
* the safest investment available *
* to the American public—if they *
* are not good no other American * * investment will be. Another is *
* that they enjoy a wide market *
* and can be turned into cash at * * any time on a moment's notice. *
* Another is that, at maturity *
* they will presumably be paid *
* back in dollars possessing a *
* higher purchasing power over *
* goods than do the dollars that *
* are paid for them in these days *
* of high war prices. And still a *
* fourth is that they yield a good *
* rate of interest. *
* These latter reasons, however, *
* are essentially mercenary, and *
* the true American needs no *
* mercenary appeal to serve his *
* country in its time of peril. *
* *****

With Our Boys at the Front in France

This picture shows American soldiers returning from a patrol—one of the most difficult tasks encountered on the battlefields of Europe. Men in small groups go out to collect information about enemy positions and their safety depends almost entirely upon their own personal courage, ability and intelligence. These men know that the folks at home will back them up by backing up the Fourth Liberty Loan.

FARM LOAN ASS'N ORGANIZED HERE

Eleven Farmers Apply For $42,100

—Others Wishing to Secure Loans Should Make Application Soon.

At a meeting held at the Farm Bureau office, Friday, September 13, eleven farmers made application for loans from the Federal Land Bank and proceeded to organize National Farm Loan Association. The name of the association was voted to be "The Ulster National Farm Loan Association."

E. H. Forbush, field organizer for the Federal Land Bank was present and after explaining the method of securing a loan through the Federal Land Bank assisted in organizing the association.

The charter members of the Farm Loan Association are as follows: John Schermermund, St. Remi; Henrietta C. Main, Kingston; R. F. D.; Ralph Kay Forsyth, Kingston; W. S. Wygrant, Saugerties; Lemuel Brown, Lomontville; John M. Ostrander, Saugerties; Russell Trowbridge, Kyserike; Fred Simpson, Accord; Chas. W. Meyer, Kingston, R. D. 1; Mrs. Minnie Bofeler, Kingston, R. F. D.; and M. C. Hartshorn, Kingston, R. F. D. 3, N. Y. The following members were elected as board of directors to serve until the next annual meeting: Ralph Kay Forsyth, Lemuel Brown, John M. Ostrander, Russell Trowbridge and Fred Simpson. At a business meeting held by the board of directors, Russell Trowbridge was elected president; Lemuel Brown, vice-president and C. F. Cochran, secretary and treasurer.

The territory within which this association shall transact business is Ulster and Greene counties. This means that membership in the association is open to all farmers residing in Ulster or Greene counties. Farmers that desire to secure loans through the association should communicate with the secretary-treasurer, C. F. Cochran, Farm Bureau manager, Kingston, N. Y.

The Ulster National Farm Loan Association of Kingston, is the second association to be organized in Ulster county. The first was organized at Ellenville, through the efforts of the Federation of Jewish Farmers of America.

The needs of our government in financing the war have made many inroads upon the sources upon which the farmers usually depend for their mortgage money. The next Liberty Loan, and succeeding Liberty Loans, will accentuate these conditions. The farmer must learn to look far enough ahead so as not to be caught napping and find himself suddenly facing an insistent though courteous demand to liquidate his mortgage, and possible foreclosure.

There are about three months left of this year during which it will be possible to make farm appraisals. The presence of snow during the winter, and the impossibility of country roads, postpones appraising until rather late in the spring. Besides, the loan committees and directors of the local Farm Loan Associations are farmers and are busy men. They cannot stop their work to attend to loan applications at a moment's notice. Prospective borrowers should, therefore, be urged not to wait until the last minute but to anticipate their needs as far in advance as possible. The farmer who may need money this winter or even next spring should make application to the local association at once.

HURLEY.

Hurley, Sept. 14.—There has been placed in the vestibule of our village church an honor roll containing the names of members of the church who are in the service of the U. S. government. The roll is most beautifully designed and in its neat frame, makes a fine memorial of the men whose names are inscribed thereon. The beautiful lettering adds much to the effectiveness and attractiveness of the material. The following names are given:

Harvey Vanderlyn, U. S. S. Com-fort.
Fred F. Lockwood, Radio Service, U. S. N.
Aubrey Armit, Co. B, 197th Infantry.
Charles Joy, Co. A Machine Gun Battalion.
Raymond Crispell, 10th Battery, 147th Brigade.
Fred Mason, Co. A, 305th Infantry.
Levan G. Smith, Headquarters, 153rd Infantry.
Elbert L. Elmendorf, 396th Ambulance.
Philip Hutton, Co. F, 51st Infantry.
Hobart A. Rowe, Battery E, 35th Regiment, F. A.
Charles J. Lockwood, Merchant Marine.
Mrs. Sandels, a former resident here, with her two grandchildren, were Sunday visitors in the village.
Miss Lucille Paken is home for a few days from the mountains.
Mrs. S. F. TenEyck is manager for the Home Defense. Part of the work is weighing children from 1 to 6 years old. This has been accomplished for one district. The other sections are being taken care of by members appointed by Mrs. TenEyck.

There were 41 men registered on Thursday last.
The road roller belonging to the town has been rented to the town of Woodstock at a rental of about $10 per day.

Miss Edna Miller is expected home the early part of next week. Miss Edna, with her sister, Miss Margaret Miller, intend to join the Red Cross Nurses' Corps in October.

The salvage work for the Red Cross has as yet met with but little response. It is earnestly hoped that the village will come across in this direction, as it has in other directions; that is, make a good showing. Send in your old material to the TenEyck store or to the receiving headquarters in Kingston.

Arthur A. Davis, cashier of the Kingston National Bank, Frank L. Miller, of the Wall Street Barber Shop, John P. Woolsey and John

Ideal weather and the "entire" Sunday made a combination that brought out the hikers in large numbers Sunday. The country roads near here were crowded with pedestrians.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our sincere thanks to friends and relatives for the acts of kindness during the death of our beloved son, Chas. Flanagan, and to the employees of the Sturges Hotel and the employees of the Eagle Hotel, Windsor, Pennsylvania, for their beautiful floral tributes.

The war has taught one important thing to those who are willing to learn. It has made things cost more; and when we pay more for a thing we're apt to be more particular to know what we're getting. The war has taught that good quality pays in economy, tho we have to pay more to get it.

Be patriotic about buying clothes

You may not need new clothes this fall; if you can get along with what you have, save the money for Liberty Bonds or War Savings Stamps. If you have to buy, remember this:

poor quality in clothes look very good, and there's plenty of poor quality to be had.

You don't buy anything in which quality is more important than clothes; you ought to be very particular about what you get for your money, especially because it's so easy to make

Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes are one of the ways in which we serve; all-wool fabrics, the best of tailoring, the most distinguished style; clothes that you can rely on, absolutely. Such clothes as these, made carefully for service, are the best means of saving money for yourself and resources for the country.

The new styles are economical

In regard to style, you'll find that they are as smart looking as ever; but there's greater simplicity in them, and everything has been designed to save materials and labor. You'll like the new models we're sure; we have a good many things to show you.

GASLESS SUNDAYS AND "OUR BOYS"

Patriotism Doubly Shown in Esopus by Absence of Autos and Good Attendance at M. E. Church Demonstration.

On a recent Sunday a certain government employee living at 1181st Park counted all the automobiles that passed his home from 7 to 8 p. m., and the number totalled 155. Last Sunday during the same hours, an old lady living near the same village indulged in this same unique pastime, and her report was only three.

All this is mentioned for several reasons: First, how much gasoline was used formerly for pleasure purposes; secondly, how implicitly the order to refrain from doing this was obeyed by the people; and thirdly, it did not stop the patriotic demonstration held in the M. E. Church at Esopus from being filled with local people, for not a single auto brought any outsiders even from West Park, which was programmed as a joint beneficiary in the affair.

The new heroine and heroes of the hour last evening were: Miss Isabelle C. Davis, Red Cross nurse at U. S. Base Hospital No. 5, Fort Ontario, Oswego, N. Y. (She is a sister of Mrs. Elmer Lund of the village.) Rev. Thomas P. Roghe, chaplain in our army, now in France. He was formerly professor of philosophy at Mount St. Alphonsus, Esopus.

Sergeant Major Maurice E. Lyons of the British Expeditionary Force. He went to France with the first 100,000.
F. W. Lyons, who has been in France fighting for two years. (These are brothers of the Rev. James J. Lyons, pastor of the M. E. Church where the demonstration was held.)

Howard Wright, William Schane, William Hummel, Harlowe McClain, Raymond Van der Water, Vincent J. Bullen, C. F. Sherman, Murley Green.

All these were in addition to 12 Esopus-West Park boys previously shown in these demonstrations. The Rev. James J. Lyons, who was on the program for a patriotic address, pleaded unpreparedness. But this must have been only a bit of people off their guard only to conquer them with many such shots of logic as this: "The Kaiser's motto has always been the selfish one of 'God is with us.' Now if he had been a real Christian he would have taken for his motto, 'We are with God,' then there would not have been a war."

George Propheeter gave a lecture, illustrated with government slides which proved to be interesting as these war lectures usually are. The free will offering was ample enough to pay for all the slides of the local boys, the stereopticon projection and other smaller items. The entire affair may be repeated in the near future at West Park for the benefit of those who were unable to find conveyance to this demonstration.

"War Time."

A novel memento of the great war is a clock, which is made from munitions—both enemy and allied—collected on the Somme battlefield by a soldier, who afterwards used them for this purpose. The body of the clock is a German shellcase, and German cartridges form the legs. Of the three cartridges on top of the innkeeper, the two outside are German, and the one tracing the center French, while the two small ornaments between these are Belgian bullets. The side ornaments are made from Vercy-light cases, pierced to admit of a British cartridge projecting through the top. The pendulum consists of five French bullets, and the figures and hands are bent to shape from copper wire taken from German trenches.

To complete the whole, the clock movement inside is also of German make, and, after necessary repairs, is found to be entirely adequate.

DADDY'S EVENING FAIRY TALE BY MARY GRAHAM BONNER

THE CHIMPANZEE'S ACCIDENT.

"I can jump and swing from my trapeze so easily," said Betty, the chimpanzee.

"So can I," replied another chimpanzee in the zoo.

And then all the apes, monkeys and chimpanzees began to swing from one trapeze to the other, and from one part of their cage to another part. They were so graceful and they moved so easily; they could catch themselves by their hands or feet. Indeed, they were regular acrobats, and could have gone into a circus any day.

Still they were very glad that they were not in a circus. They had a splendid time in the zoo, such a nice keeper to look after them, and they did their tricks for him and for the children.

There were no special times when they had to perform. Of course if the keeper asked them to they would. And if children stood before their big cages and looked at them in a way which seemed to say:

"Oh please jump and swing for us, and hang by your tails and hands."

"Now Watch Me Perform."

the chimpanzees would do all they could to amuse the children.

This day when they were talking about what they could do the keeper came along. There was a little girl by his side named Lucy and with Lucy was her mother.

"Lucy, would you like to see the chimpanzees do their tricks?" the keeper asked.

And Lucy nodded her head, which was a very nice head with yellow curls, and said: "Oh, please, keeper, do have them show their tricks."

"Well, how about a trick for the lady?" asked the keeper of one of the chimpanzees.

The chimpanzee looked at the keeper and then at Lucy and then at Lucy's mother, and she seemed to say: "You all look like mighty nice people—that is, I know the keeper is nice, so that makes one nice person, and Lucy looks very nice, so that makes two nice people. Her mother looks nice, so that makes three nice people. Yes, I do believe I can do my tricks for three nice people. So I will start in."

And the chimpanzee began her tricks. Soon another chimpanzee watching said to herself: "I would like to do some tricks for this very fine audience. Now watch me perform." This was the chimpanzee named Betty.

They did the most wonderful tricks and how proud the keeper was of his pets. Betty quite took the prize for she tried every trick she had ever known, and some new ones as well.

But she loved to hear Lucy laugh. It was such a very cheerful, happy laugh. And so she kept on doing trick after trick.

After a time Lucy and her mother had to leave the zoo, and the chimpanzees had to have their supper.

"May we come again and see them?" asked Lucy.

"From the way they have acted today," said the keeper, "I am sure they'd be glad to see you again. They've had as good a time as you have had. And I love to have visitors who don't tease the animals, but who like them and who care to watch them and grow to know them. Those visitors are always welcome. But visitors who would tease animals who can't fight back—well, that is too dreadful!"

"I should just say it was," agreed Lucy, as she went off, after waving a good-by to the chimpanzees and the keeper.

A little more than three weeks later Lucy and her mother went back to the zoo and there was Betty in her cage, looking very quiet and peaceful.

"She doesn't feel like acting today but she is well again. A day or so after you left," the keeper told Lucy, "she was climbing a tiny ladder to her sleeping box when she fell by slipping between the steps at the top. She went right over and snapped a bone of her leg. It had to be set and put in plaster of paris which is a horrid, stiff bandage, but it made the leg quite all well again."

"Imagine Betty hurting herself like that when she could do such tricks," said Lucy.

"Isn't it strange," said the keeper, "but though Betty wasn't doing wonderful tricks for us until a little later I must tell you that she's a mighty fine, plucky chimpanzee, for she never made a whimper all the time she was sick. Did you, Betty?"

And Betty looked so happy at his praise.

REPENTANT DRUNKS IN POLICE COURT

Charles McTague of Haines Falls, was arrested by Officer Healey on a charge of stealing a black grip belonging to a passenger on the West Shore Railroad. The passenger was A. J. Daley of Highland. He had placed the grip down on the floor of the station. This morning McTague informed the court that he had been drunk for over a week. He had come to Kingston Saturday. He said he was married and had six children. His family did not know where he was. The fact that he had such a large family was all that saved Charles from going to jail and he was given another chance to take the next train back home.

Thomas McGuire was picked up on North Front street Monday helplessly drunk by Officer Shuler. He pleaded with the court to forgive him this time. It was the second time this year he had appeared before Judge Schirlick and he was fined $5.

John Wesolowski, 16 years old arrested Monday for breaking into the building owned by Mr. Thompson on the lowlands back of the Albany Avenue Baptist Church was sentenced to Randle's Island by the court. He was taken there this morning by Officer O'Neill.

PORT EWEN.

Port Ewen, Sept. 17.—Emil Closs, the celebrated Swiss Bell Ringer, of New York city will give his popular entertainment in Pythian Hall Monday evening, September 23. Admission 25 cents. This is Mr. Closs's second appearance in this village and those who heard him once will not have to be urged to go this time as it is something altogether new and different from the entertainment he gave here some months ago. Surely you will spend an evening worth while.

Mrs. Emma Mabie of Salem street had a large flower pot stolen off her burial plot in the Port Ewen cemetery and the person is known, so it must be returned at once to avoid further trouble.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hamilton and daughter, Miss Maggie Hamilton, of Salem street went to New York city Monday to spend the winter with Mrs. Hamilton's sons.

Mrs. George T. Van Aken of Broadway is visiting her mother at Bloomington, Ill.

Agri-graphs.
The best time to do a good job is now. Putting it off makes it harder.

A rainy day job: Make a hanging shelf and a screened cupboard for the cellar. Your wife will appreciate them.

These gasless Sundays make the fine team of horses and a spick and span carriage chuckle to himself.

Farm machinery is still advancing in price. It's well to remember, therefore, that a fence corner or an apple tree will not protect a machine from rain and rust.

Inspect the silo before it is filled. Look out especially for openings in the walls where air might enter and spoil the silage. Rough places on the walls are likely to prevent proper settling.

Thoughts of the long winter which is coming are less unpleasant when New York's bumper apple crop is kept in mind. Long winter evenings and a big dish of rosy apples on the reading table go well together.

Your next year's corn crop will depend in a large measure upon the care with which you select the seed from this year's crop. Better send to the state college of agriculture at Ithaca at once for R. C. F. 129 on "Improving the Corn Crop by Selection and Breeding."

CHANLER MAY BE LAME.

The artist is suffering with a fractured right leg. Physicians are not able to determine whether he will be lame.
